

Greater Kashmir

SRINAGAR | July 24, 2019, Wednesday

Workshop on Disaster Management concludes

Srinagar, July 23: Two-day training workshop for girl student volunteers organized by Civil Defence Srinagar in collaboration with JTFRP (Jhelum Tawi Flood Recovery Project) funded by World Bank concluded at Women's Degree College. M. A road Srinagar here today.

Nighat Aman, Deputy Controller, Civil Defence Srinagar in her inaugural address stressed on the need for collaborative efforts in order to face the challenge of natural disasters.

Jehangir Hashmi, Additional CEO, JKERA congratulated Civil Defence, Srinagar for organizing the 2-day training programme and said that holding of such training programmes in the state is vital to improve the level of preparedness to meet the challenge of natural disasters in the state of J&K which is very vulnerable to natural disasters. He also highlighted the significance of the traditional architecture of Kashmir like Daji Diwari in prevention of loss of lives during natural calamities like earthquakes.